Question - Explain the main features of the state structure proposed by the Motilal Nehru report (1928), highlighting the federal Unitary & Confederal elements present in its recommendations. (10m)

The challenge thrown by Birkinhead was proudly accepted by Indian leaders, paving the way for Motilal Nehru Committee in May 1928.

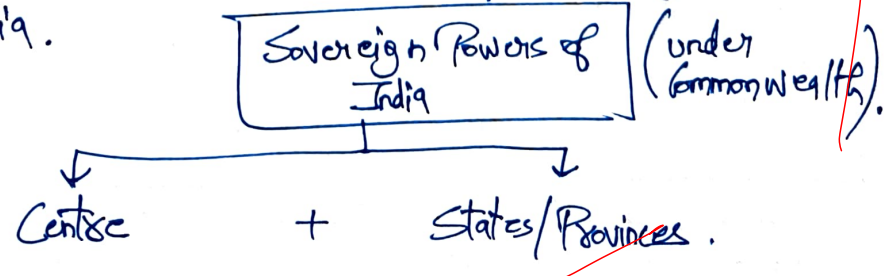

Provisions of Nehru report, August 1928

- ① Federal elements
 - Independent judiciary with hierarchy and Supreme Court as the apex court of appeal (instead of the then - King - in - Council in Britain).
 - Legislative powers vested in the parliament that shall be of Bicameral nature i.e. King + Senate + House of Representative.
 - Federal structure of responsible govt. in India.

→ Creation of linguistic provisions with seats reserved for Minorities.

Unitary Elements

→ Address Communalism by abolishing separate electorates & introducing joint-electorates with seats reserved for Muslims in central leg. assembly and in provinces where they are in Minority + reservation of Non-muslims in NWFP.

→ Residuary powers to lie with Centre → This is departure from pure federalism.

→ SC to be the apex court of appeal.

→ Dominion status i.e. India to be a nation within Commonwealth/ British Empire ensuring Imperial dominance.

The demands of "Nationalism" transformed from "Dominion status" to "Purna Swaraj" after another attempt of British to delay constitutional demands/ reforms in India.
